

U.S.

They say their children are being denied transplants because of their disabilities. A new federal law may help change that.

By Michael Roppolo
February 28, 2022 / 3:30 PM EST / CBS News

Not only was I born with Down syndrome, I was also born with a congenital heart defect.