

Luggage on Capitol Hill

Advocates who are departing Washington, D.C. at the end of the Hill Day may want to consider storing their luggage near the airport or Hill.

Storing Near the Airport

The conference hotel and venue is conveniently located near the Ronald Reagan International Airport (DCA). Attendees who wish to store their luggage near the airport are encouraged to check their bags with the hotel and briefly return to the hotel to pick up their bags before heading to the airport.

Storing Near Capitol Hill

Advocates who wish to store their bags near Capitol Hill are encouraged to consider third-party luggage storage options. These vendors charge an hourly or daily rate to store luggage in secure locations such as nearby hotels, cafes, and metro stations.

Vendors to consider:

- www.usebounce.com
- www.radicalstorage.co
- www.vertoe.com
- www.luggagehero.com

Luggage, backpacks, and large bags larger than 18" wide x 14" high x 8.5" deep are prohibited inside the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center and surrounding Congressional buildings.