

NAD+ Study: Brain Health and Down syndrome

Why participate?

To find out if a study drug, given at different doses, may help prevent or delay Alzheimer's disease in adults with Down syndrome.

Who can participate?

- Adults with Down syndrome (18+ years)
- Has a caregiver with 10+ hours of weekly contact
- English is the primary language

What is involved?

- Daily NMN or placebo tablets for 28 days
- 8 in-person visits
- Compensation is provided

QUESTIONS?

researchdownsyndrome@mgh.harvard.edu